

Red Young/ Silvie Rider-Young

Red Young

Red Young was born in Fort Worth, Texas. Growing up with a classical background and listening to everyone from Van Cliburn (whom he met at age 11), Ray Charles, B.B. King, Lightnin' Hopkins, Ft. Worth natives Delbert McClinton, Ray Sharpe, King Curtis, Freddy King and many other Texas Blues and Jazz Players. He accompanied vocalists, choirs, played in bands and in general grew up with a well-rounded musical education. For more information on Red, including bios, photos and music links, see more on his website <http://redyoung.com>.

Silvie Rider-Young

Silvie Rider-Young was born and raised in Switzerland, with parts of her family living in France and Austria. Silvie discovered the Great World of Sound and Music at the age of 6 years at the piano, of her pastor-uncles house in Murten. She learned by experimenting on the piano, playing simple notes and chords for hours and by listening to the energy of the sound. Constant classical piano lessons followed later after this essential “key-childhood-experience” and she became absolutely mesmerized.

Silvie continues to resonate with the World of Music and you can read more about her unique style on her website: <http://silvierideryoung.com>
