

SILVIE RIDER YOUNG

PHOTO BY TODD V. WOLFSON

SILVIE RIDER YOUNG BIO

Silvie Rider Young: Musician, Singer-Songwriter, piano-lyrics-composition

Quote: "Without Music All Is Nothing" Albert Einstein

Silvie discovered the world of sound and music on the piano, at the age of six, at her pastor uncle's house in Switzerland. Playing, improvising and studying the classical piano and later Jazz is her foundation for her vocal work and compositions to this day. Now Swiss-American, Silvie moved to the U.S.A. in 2007 after meeting her soon to be husband Red Young in Munich, where she had been living, performing and teaching Music as Lecturer for Music and Voice at The International Acting School Munich ISSA as well as teaching voice and piano at the classical Music School, Kubiz in Munich, Germany. She was performing with her Silvie Rider Art Duo/Trio and Starfighter, a European Jazz-Rock Band Silvie wrote the lyrics and melodies, and the band BabyTalk, signed by BMG Ariola. Additional Recordings in Munich and Berlin, Germany, Silvie Rider CD: Ride On in 2006.

Education: University Bern, Swiss Jazz School Bern, College Teacher Seminar in Thun, Switzerland, AFS-Exchange Student (American Field Service) in Annapolis, MD. U.S.A.

Silvie has performed internationally at Festivals, at Cultural Events and Jazz Clubs in Europe, France, Germany, Switzerland, Mexico, Japan and The U.S.A. With her new Residence in The U.S.A. she is performing with her own Silvie Rider Young Trio/Quartet/Quintet, Red Young and other Artists. Conversing and singing in multiple languages, Silvie's recorded albums in the U.S.A. Je Te Connais and Reviens are being played and streamed worldwide as is her latest album You Must Believe In Spring, recorded with Greats of The Music World. Silvie Rider-Young with 3 Maestros Red Young (piano, Organ B3), Roscoe Beck (bass, former Leonard Cohen) and Tom Brechtlein (drums, former Chick Corea). Her Compilation album : Silvie Rider Young, Easy Rider Young, songs recorded in Europe and U.S.A., Jazz, Classical, Pop, Rock and her own lyrics and Compositions, are out July 10, 2026.

Stay in touch!